Reciprocal Jurisdiction Reinsurers Initial and Annual Renewal Requirements

Full Application

Reciprocal Jurisdiction Reinsurers requesting Mississippi to act as its "Lead State" for NAIC Reinsurance Financial Analysis (E) Working Group (ReFAWG) and passporting purposes should file a full application, meaning complete Section I of the Uniform Checklist for Reciprocal Jurisdiction Reinsurers, and file all of the necessary corresponding exhibits detailed in that section of the checklist.

Passport Application

Reciprocal Jurisdiction Reinsurers who have established their Lead State with an NAIC accredited jurisdiction other than Mississippi, whose initial application has been reviewed by ReFAWG, and would like their reciprocal jurisdiction reinsurer status recognized in Mississippi should file a passport application, meaning complete Section II of the Uniform Checklist for Reciprocal Jurisdiction Reinsurers, and file all of the necessary corresponding exhibits detailed in that section of the checklist.

Maintaining Reciprocal Jurisdiction Reinsurer Status (Annually)

Annual renewal applications shall be submitted no later than August 15th.

Applicants that filed a full application in Mississippi should annually complete Section I of the Uniform Checklist for Reciprocal Jurisdiction Reinsurers, and file all the necessary corresponding exhibits detailed in that section of the checklist.

Applicants that have passported into Mississippi should annually complete Section II of the Uniform Checklist for Reciprocal Jurisdiction Reinsurers, and file all the necessary corresponding exhibits detailed in that section of the checklist.
