files an initial filing for a new Mortgage Guaranty program. The company is primarily copying the rates and rules filed for Arch Mortgage Insurance Company (AMI). The Company is introducing several new surcharges to accommodate loans that do not confirm to government-sponsored entity eligibility requirements. The Company has added surcharges for "super jumbo" loans, interest-only loans, and loans with high debt-to-income ratios. The justification for the surcharges are perceived claim frequency and/or severity increases, which is consistent with the fact that such loans currently do not qualify for the AMI program.

files a loss cost filing for Motorcycle Insurance, which proposes revisions to the advisory loss costs for all coverages. It appears that ISO is proposing several other related changes.
However, based on the limited information provided in the filing, we will need to confirm this with ISO. While most of the support for the indicated loss costs is reasonable, additional support is needed for some selections and calculations. Changes are also proposed to Snowmobile loss costs, which are primarily based on the support for the proposed Motorcycle loss costs.
Effective Date March 17, 2015.

JOHN DEERE INSURANCE COMPANY
FILING NUMBER
JDRP-129920015

files a new Crop-Hail product named 2015 Increased Replant.
Effective Date March 27, 2015.
files a new Accountants Professional Liability (OL) program. The filing indicates that the rates and rules are based on a similar competitor (Continental Casualty Company) program, with the only deviations being related to additional options that the Company wishes to offer. We have verified that the cited competitor has a similar program approved in Mississippi. Effective Date March 18, 2015.

files rates, rules and forms for its new Group Tuition Refund Coverage Program. Effective Date June 1, 2015.

files initial rules introducing an alternate property predictive model for Personal Lines called Property Location Insight. Effective Date March 17, 2015.

files its new Care Providers (CMP) program. The filing cites ISO loss costs and similar competitor programs (Arch Insurance Company) as the basis for the filed rates. The filing includes support demonstrating that the Company’s PLR is similar to Arch’s PLR. Effective Date March 20, 2015.

Company requests a rate/rule filing for its Classic Auto (PPA) program filing a replication of a competitor filing, Essentia Insurance, resulting in a +5.6% increase. Effective Date July 1, 2015 for new and August 15, 2015 for renewal.

files to introduce a new Liquor Liability program. The filing cites its own modeling with its countrywide experience, as well as competitor filings in other states. Given the niche nature of this coverage, we do not consider additional support to be necessary. Effective Date April 1, 2015.
files revised rates for its MiniPak-Businessowners program, with an impact of +10.0% on $266k of premium based on an indication of +59.4%. The filing includes a rate level indication based on 6 years of experience, which is largely driven of the complement of credibility loss ratio (countrywide experience excluding TX).
Effective Date April 1, 2015.

files a revised LCM for its Businessowners. The impact of the filed revision is +9.8% on $15k of premium.
Effective Date August 1, 2015.

files to adopt the latest NCCI loss costs with a revised LCM from 1.729 to 1.955. The filing states that the filed changes will have an impact of -8.6% on $241k of premium, and includes quantitative support for the requested rate change. The support is reasonably given the impact of the filed change.
Effective Date May 1, 2015.

files to adopt the most recent approved ISO loss costs (CA-2014-BRLA1) and adjust LCMs for its Dealers Operations (Commercial Auto) program. The revised LCM for each coverage is an increase from the previous LCM. The filing indicates that the rate impact is +9.2% on $619k of premium. The support for the revised LCMs is based on indications based on five years of statewide experience for each coverage, with ELRs from countrywide experience relied on as the complement of credibility. For several of the coverages, the experienced-based indications are for significant decreases, while a very high credibility standard and a countrywide indication for a significant increase results in a credibility-weighted indicated increase. However, for other coverages, the countrywide indication does temper a much higher statewide indicated increase.
Effective Date April 1, 2015.
files revised LCMs (7.0% increase) for its Commercial Multi-Line program. The filing indicates that the rate impact on each company is +0.4% on $3.1 million of premium and 0.0% on $424k of premium, based on an indicated increase of 4.9%. The requested change is supported by a rate level indication for each of the sub-lines of coverage (General Liability, Commercial Property, Series One Contractors), but the filing proposes only adopting the indicated change of +7.4% on SOC, which represents a small portion of the business, resulting in the overall impact of +0.4%. The SOC indication is largely driven by the complement of credibility, given its low volume.

Effective Date July 20, 2015.

files revised LCMs (7.0% increase) for its Commercial Property program. The filing indicates that the rate impact on each company is +6.7% on $2.5 million of premium and 6.9% on $340k of premium, based on an indicated increase of 13.7%. The requested change is supported by a rate level indication for each of the sub-lines of coverage (Group I, Group II, Special Causes of Loss) and in aggregate. The rate level indications utilize 5 years of experience except for Group II, which relies on 10 years of experience. The indications include consideration of adjustment for previous rate levels, premium and loss trend, loss development, a catastrophe provision, and credibility. The complement of credibility includes consideration of both the countrywide experience (with a credibility assigned) and the trended PLR.

Effective Date July 20, 2015.

Company files changes to its rates for its Health Care Organization, Officers and Trustees (General Liability) program resulting in a -0.9% impact.

Effective Date June 1, 2015 for new and renewal business.
