MID Revokes the Licenses of 21 Insurance Agents for Fraud

JACKSON, Miss. – The Mississippi Insurance Department (MID) is revoking the licenses of 21 insurance agents after they failed to appear at a hearing this week. The agents are accused of obtaining or maintaining a Mississippi resident producer license through material misrepresentation or false pretenses, in violation of state law. This comes after 59 agents were similarly charged in July.

“My office found out about the misrepresentation through our investigative division,” said Commissioner Mike Chaney. “To put it simply, the agents lied on their applications. The cases were scheduled for hearings on October 15, 2026. However, none of the agents showed up to defend themselves, and the licenses were revoked immediately.”

The agents may appeal the decisions pursuant to Mississippi Code Section 83-17-83.
